SHINGLE'S CAR IS WRECKED IN SMASH; U. S. OFFICER MAY DIE

How a new Cadillac automobile owned by Robert Shingle of Honolulu figured in a terrific head-on collision with another car on the San Mateo road south of San Francisco is told by passengers arriving here on the Matsonia.

Fog was the cause of the collision, and the driver of the second car, an army officer, was so badly injured by the collision that doubts are held of his recovery.

Mannell Simmons, chauffeur for Mr. Shingle, was driving the Cadillac when the accident occurred. He was alone and was making an early morning run to get Mr. Shingle and party, who had spent the night at San Mateo.

Just as he left South San Francisco he met the army officer, whose car suddenly loomed up out of the thick fog. Neither had an opportunity to check his speed before the cars dashed together.

Simmons was badly cut by flying glass from the two wind shields. The Cadillac was wrecked.

Troop XX, Boy Scouts, will hold a special meeting Wednesday, November 7, at headquarters at the Normal school, at 7:30.
